

I live in a suburb of L.A. where the radio reception is horrible. For this reason I never listened to radio until I got XM Satellite Radio. Furthermore, this is a subscriber paid service. Do they not have the right to provide services their customers demand? Is this not considered free enterprise? Do we still live in America?

NO ON HR 4026!!!